New Moves in Near East; Israel Invaded by Syrians

Israel, May 2.—(U)—The infant state of Israel reports that it was invaded by Syrian troops today.

Tonight, an Israeli military spokesman, Capt. Lionel Tytan, says his army counter-attacked the Syrian forces and have driven them back to the Syrian border.

Tytan says the strength of the Syrian forces ranged up to one company, supported by armed irregulars, and also supported by artillery fire from the border.

The territory the Syrian troops invaded is a demilitarized area on the border slightly less than two miles wide. The Syrians also are reported to have penetrated a short distance into Israel proper.

Syrian officials at the U.N. in New York take a dim view of the Israeli reports. Syrian delegate Faris El-Khoury Bey says he has no information of the incident.

The newly reported clash is the latest in a series of troubles between the two countries that have threatened to break down their two-year-old armistice agreement.

CONVO FRIDAY

Newly elected ASMSU officers will be presented at a convocation Friday. Also included on the program are the Jubileers and the MSU band.

CB Cuts Publicity; Mountaineer Stays

Central board eliminated ASMSU's publicity travel fund yesterday, and restored the Mountaineer to the proposed 1951-52 budget.

The publicity travel fund had been scheduled to get 2.2 per cent of the activity fee intake. The Mountaineer was given a one per cent share in the ASMSU budget from the publicity travel money, the Kaimin and the general fund netted .5 per cent, and the men's intramural program received .2 per cent.

The vote for the literary magazine's new lease on life was unanimous.

ASMSU Business Manager Jim Murphy opposed abolishing the travel appropriation on the grounds that each student lured to the University brings with him $30 per year in activity fee money—the fund, he said, was a worthwhile investment. The consensus of the board, however, seemed to be that the University itself should take the responsibility for the travel publicity.

Murphy's motion, near the end of the two-hour meeting, which gave boosts to the Kaimin, intramurals, and general fund allocations, also included an affirmation of the proposed athletics budgeting of 48 per cent.

Wohlgenant, ASMSU Secretary Jackie Perry, and Junior Delegate Juanita Kugler had questioned the athletics allocation during the meeting.

"I thought that the athletic department, before the fee-raise, had decided that it could maintain a Skyline Eight program on $20,000," Wohlgenant said.

The estimated allocation for next year's sports program is $25,920.

ASMSU President Bob Anderson explained that athletic board had decided Tuesday that the $19,500 figure estimated in the preliminary athletics budget for the take from the University of Washington series was $7,000 too high.

Wohlgenant asked what had accounted for the $7,000 fluctuation in the estimate during a two-week period.

"As auditor," University Auditor E. Kirk Badgley replied, "I couldn't have accepted the athletic department's budget, as the estimate was far too high."

Badgley said that he had made his views of the estimate's reliability known when the first athletic budget was drawn up.

"Doesn't this change mean that athletics has had a chance to go back over its budget since the fee raise, while no one else has?" asked Wohlgenant.

"That's right," Anderson said.

Miss Perry asked if charging admissions to athletic contests wouldn't be feasible. Murphy said that Budget and Finance committee felt that another cost shouldn't be added when the students would already have to pay for the in-

Bill Reynolds won the ASMSU presidency yesterday in a student election that attracted less than half of the eligible voters.

He gathered 580 votes to top Don Stanaway, Billings, by 134 ballots. A Sigma Chi, Reynolds is the third successive Missoula man to win the key student post.

In unofficial returns, Harvey Schlieman, Missoula, edged Bryce Breitenstein, Plains, by four votes in the ASMSU business manager race. The count stood 510 to 506 for Schlieman after the recount.

Law Fraternity Initiates Seven

Phi Alpha Delta, law honor society, will initiate seven new members today at 4:30 p.m. in the Missoula county courthouse. At 6:45 p.m. today, the organization will have an anniversary banquet at Andre's coffee parlor.

Homer H. Clark, assistant law professor, will be the honored guest at the banquet. New Phi Alpha Delta initiates will be Professor Clark, Emmet Walsh, Anaconda; Steve Brodie, Missoula; Williams Evans, Missoula; Paul Olsen, Butte; and Gene Huntley, Bridger.

Audrey Olson, Billings, topped Nancy Calvert, Great Falls, 664 to 352 to win the ASMSU vice-presidency. The voters picked Dona Skates, Billings, as their next ASMSU secretary. She led Marilyn Schuch, Anaconda, 308 votes to 157.

The Store board contest was close as all seven candidates polled a substantial vote. The winners and their totals: Doug Kuster, Hamilton, 591; Robert Lamley, Kenton, Ohio, 590; George Harpole, Arcadia, Calif., 588; Ann Stone, Missoula, 568; and Joan Arnold, Malta, 540. Eliminated were Dick Wood, Bridger, and Rita Gray, Whitefish, who polled 523 and 486 votes respectively.

Voting was close in all races for Central board positions. Falle Nelson, Glendive, won the senior delegate position by edging Ruth Galen, Missoula, 144 votes to 127.

Jack Coppedge, Polson, gathered 139 votes to win the junior delegate post from Rosemary Anderson, Sidney, who polled 101.

Bill Jones' rather flamboyant campaign paid dividends as the Miles City student narrowly defeated Dave Leuthold, Molt, 148 to 133, for sophomore delegate.

Sigma Nu to Hold Convention Here

Approximately 25 Sigma Nus from seven colleges and universities will meet on the MSU campus tomorrow for the 1951 Northwest regional Sigma Nu convention. Gamma Phi chapter is the host chapter to seven schools, which include Washington State college, University of Idaho, Oregon State college, University of Washington, University of Oregon, College of Puget Sound, and Montana State University.

The convention will begin Friday evening with dinner at the chapter house, followed by an informal get-together.

Saturday's order of business will begin at 8 a.m. and will conclude with the White Star banquet that evening, after which local Sigma Nus and their guests will be hosts at a fireside honoring the visitors and guests at the Rock Creek lodge.

'Hash' Dance Exhibited By Royaleers

MSU's square dancing group, the Royaleers, exhibited their "Royal Hash" dance at the State Square Dance festival in Butte, April 28.

The money from the festival was contributed to the cancer relief fund.

Those attending the festival were George Taylor, Great Falls; Bob Jasken, Kalispell; Carl Wohlgenant, Miles City; Ed Gryczan, Cleveland; Bill Donally, Lozeau; Ralph Bacha, Great Falls; Larry Holt, Anaconda; Bob Veitch, Missoula; Bob Duval, Wisdom; Dan Bartsch, Butte; Bill Gilbert, Billings.

Ina Ranstrom, Missoula; Mary Henderson, Ryegate; Ethel Henderson, Ryegate; Joy Judkins, Billings; Helen Lewis, Boulder; Dorothy Patten, Missoula; Arden Grandy, East Helena; Donna Pitts, Hot Springs; Kaye Shults, Sunburst; and Shirley Pahrman, Havre. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ask, Vananda.

Win Hunt, square dance caller, assists the club in teaching the dances for exhibition. The group will attend the festival at St. Ignatius Saturday.

Business School Elected to Full Membership

The MSU business administration school, an associate member in the American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business since 1949, has been elected to full membership in the association, according to word received from Dean T. H. Smith, who is attending the association meeting in Savannah, Ga.

Membership is based upon whether a school can offer professional training in the business field. Of more than 400 schools and departments of business in the nation's colleges, only one out of eight has been granted full membership.

Accepted schools must meet professional standards as to their teaching staffs, curriculum, physical facilities, library, business research, and other factors. When Montana was first admitted to the association, it was the only school in the Rocky Mountain area. One other school has since been admitted.

Hmmm . . .

The budget battle in Central board yesterday raged among the smaller percentage activities while the lion's share, the athletic percentage, went unscathed except for a small nick of one half of one per cent—or $270.

Some small budgeted items were killed to restore life to others. This happened in spite of the statement made at a recent forum, previous to the fee increase balloting. I quote from the Kaimin of April 13: "ASMSU Business Manager Jim Murphy, speaking from the floor, said that, if the fee raise passed, Budget and Finance committee felt that athletics' percentage should be cut, and the budget requests of all the activities should be met."

Athletic board justified increasing their budget request from about $20,000 to about $26,000 on the basis that the estimation of the take from the University of Washington football game had gone down some $7,000 in this budget-hectic period.

It kind of makes you wonder, doesn't it?—D.W.

PROPOSED GOLF COURSE DRAWS ADDED COMMENT

Dear Editor:

I'd like to third the motion suggested by your editorial in Friday's edition, and Charles Davis' "letter to the editor" in Tuesday's Kaimin regarding the feasibility of promoting a playable University golf course.

Two years ago, during which time I lived in the strips, some of us tyros spent many happy, but fruitless hours on the rock pile.

To say that the alleged course is rough would be rendering the word an injustice.

However, Mr. Breen and the ground crew did a good job of maintenance, considering the money and equipment they had to work with.

I understand it would take about $25,000 to re-surface the fairways, seed the greens, and put in a watering system.

If the course was put in good shape, I believe the students would patronize it to an appreciable extent. Also, if it could be made a municipal course, open to the public, I believe we could look forward to patronage from hundreds of out-of-school golfers, who otherwise must travel to Polson or allow their clubs to gather dust in the closet.

I think the student body should consider re-activating the course, either through the implement of an ASMSU function, or a co-operative enterprise between ASMSU and some sort of a citizen's committee.

SPURS, BEARPAWS TO FEED, FROLIC, FEUD SUNDAY

Since Sunday, May 6 is the first day of "Be Kind to Animals" week, the Spurs have unanimously decided to show special kindness to those dear hearts and gentle animals, commonly known in lay circles as the Bearpaws.

Therefore, unless winter snows dampen their spirits and send them back into hibernation, said Bear Paws are cordially invited to a picnic at the Montana Power park. Transportation will be available at the Student Union at 2 o'clock, and of course there'll be lots of food to save them from the anguish of being hungry as bears.

Furthermore, if they can bear it, we request the privilege of their participation in a special Spur versus Bear Paw softball game. Since it is commonly known that Bear Paws are brawnier than Spurs, we feel it is only sporting that the Bear Paws condescend to certain rules which include:

1. Allowing the Spurs four strikes and four outs.
2. Lumbering around the bases backwards (if they get that far).
3. Batting southpaw (unless a Paw is normally southpaw, in which case he will bat northpaw).

Bearing with you, with humane regards,

The Spurs.

Grizzlies-Utah Aggies Clash Here, Weather Permitting

Grizzly trackmen will face a well-trounced Utah Aggie squad Saturday on Dornblaser field if the weather permits.

The Utah State Agricultural college thinclads were dropped with a dull thud by the University of Utah, 96 to 35, in a dual meet April 21. Montana dropped Brigham Young the same day, 93 to 38.

For unknown reasons, not all of USAC's best men were entered in the meet with the Utes. Regardless, the prospects are that the Aggies will be strong in the field and weight events and relatively weak on the cinders.

Grizzly shotmen Jack Luckman and Bob Ripke face Aggie Ross Morris who set a new division record in the meet with the Utes by heaving the weight 49 feet 11 inches. The Ags also placed second in that event. Luckman's best throw in the BYU meet was 46 feet 1/4 inch.

Utes Boast Vaulters

Aggies Jim Brownell and Don Rosequist took one-two in the polevault against the Utes with heights of 13 and 12 feet respectively. MSU's best mark was set by Don Crosser and George Tarrant who tied for first in the BYU meet at 11 feet 10 inches.

Grizzly javelinman Jack Rathwell will have stiff competition from USAC's Carrol Nichols and Sharm Stevenson who hit 182 feet 1 1/4 inches and 178 feet against the Utes. Nichols placed second in the conference last year with a throw of 185 feet 5 inches. Rothwell's best throw was 176 feet 9 1/4 inches against BYU.

Bob Ripke who won the discus-throw in the BYU meet with a toss of 138 feet 11 1/4 inches, will encounter USAC Roy Wahlstrom who tossed 128 feet to place second in the meet with the Utes.

Miller Offers Competition

Grizzly milers Bill Rife and Mike Fleming, first and third in the BYU meet, will run against Aggie miler Harold Jones who beat out the Ute's favorite Doug Hart in 4:37.8 in the U-USAC meet. Rife's time against the Cougars was 4:29.4.

In the running and jumping events, the Aggies failed to take any firsts, except in the mile, and failed to win any places in the high and low hurdles, 220, 880, two mile, and broad jump.

The Aggies pulled thirds in the 100 and 400 against the superior Utah squad. The Aggies' best 440-yard man, Nord, was disqualified for two false starts and Aggie runner Ed Schell finished third.

Ira Bradshaw jumped third to the Utes' high jumpers who were clearing the bar at 6 feet 1 inch. Montana's best jump this year is the 5 feet 10 inches cleared by Jack Coppedge in the Cougar meet.

Spring snows have put a crimp in the Grizzly's outdoor practice opportunities during the past week while the Aggies have the advantage of a fieldhouse for workouts, fair weather or foul.

Snow Stops Shoe Tossers

Montana style spring weather snowed out most of the intramural horseshoe pitching over the weekend. Only two matches have been played since Thursday. The Phi Sigma Kappas dropped Delta Sigma Phi, and the Theta Chis lost to the Phi Deltas.

The Phi Deltas' winning game boosted them to tie for second place with Jumbo, and the Phi Sigma Kappas scored a third place tie with the SAEs. Theta Chi and Sigma Phi Epsilon are tied for sixth place.

Team standings—	W	L
Jumbo hall	5	0
Phi Delta Theta	5	0
Sigma Alpha Epsilon	3	2
Phi Sigma Kappa	3	2
Alpha Tau Omega	2	2
Sigma Nu	1	3
Sigma Phi Epsilon	1	3
Delta Sigma Phi	0	4
Corbin hall	0	6

I-M Softball Play Depends on Fields

Intramural softball play will resume today if the fields are at all playable, according to Dave Cole, intramural director.

Today's schedule:

4:15—Phi Delta Theta vs. Sigma Chi, field No. 1. Phi Sigma Kappa vs. South hall, Clover bowl. Alpha Tau Omega vs. Alpha Phi Omega, field No. 2.

6:15—Independents vs. Jumbo hall, field No. 1. Sigma Nu vs. Kappa Psi, Clover bowl. Forestry club vs. Delta Sigma Phi, field No. 2.

Deadline Set For Golf Tourney

Entry blanks for the intramural golf tournament to be held at the Polson Country club Sunday may be obtained at Dave Cole's office in the Men's gym.

Friday noon is the deadline for entering the tourney.

Jumbo hall has won the intramural softball crown for three successive years.

Gospels Topic For Catholic Group

This afternoon's basic Catholicism topic, "How Reliable Is Our Knowledge of Christ?" will involve a discussion of the authenticity of the Gospels and the historical value of other sources of knowledge concerning Jesus, the Rev. Fr. Thomas Fenlon said yesterday.

The discussion is scheduled for 4 in the Bitterroot room of the Student Union.

Father Fenlon said the Catholic student picnic for this Sunday has been postponed because of the weather. Instead, Newman club members and interested Catholics will attend an informal breakfast and business meeting following the 10 o'clock Mass. A definite date for the picnic will be decided on then.

Agenda Varied for Christian Group

A discussion of prospective work, and plans for projects will be the main topic of the Students' Christian association meeting this afternoon in the Copper room of the Student Union.

Business will also include the election of the advisory board, discussions of plans for a retreat Saturday, and "How can we get where we want to in the area of education?"

The new officers of the association are Lee Anne Stuart, Missoula, president; Tom Lindeman, Billings, vice-president; Dick Fletcher, Billings, secretary.

ETA EPSILON TAPS TWO: PLAN PICNIC, ACTIVITIES

Roberta Alexander, Hysham, and Wana Barton, Bigfork, were tapped for Eta Epsilon, home economics honor society, at a meeting of the Homearts club, Wednesday evening.

The Homearts club made plans for a picnic and other activities this quarter and also worked on publicity for freshmen entering school fall quarter, Judy Larkin, Missoula, president, said.

NURSERY READINESS TEST EXPLAINED BY PERKINS

Mrs. Jessie Perkins, director of MSU's nursery school, told parents at the final meeting for the year Monday about the readiness test.

The readiness test will be given to kindergarten children before they enter the first grade.

Mrs. Perkins also gave a talk on the children's conference she attended at Seattle.
